A Letter Addressed to Elias Koussa from Jerusalem, 6 August 1957

Handwritten on 6 August 1957, this document shows a letter that was addressed to Elias Koussa, in which the writer referred to Koussa's letter on an article that had been previously published in the Jerusalem Post newspaper and inquired about the address of residence of a judge who was on his way to Jerusalem.

7/2/17

Dear Mr Koussa!

I received the copies of your letters to the Jerusalem Post and to Judge Leibowitz. In order to know, where the judge could be, I called on the Eden - Hotel, but he has never been there. I don't know where he is now. Could you send to me an original letter to him and I would, in case he will be again in Jerusalem, send this letter to him. Yours Khawass
