A Letter from Elyas Kusa to the Speaker of the House of Commons of the UK, September 1957

Printed in English on 9 September 1957, this document a letter from Elyas Kusa to the Speaker of the House of Commons of the UK about his letter to Herbert Morrison, a British politician.

9th September, 1957.

The Honourable
Speaker of the House of Commons,
London.

Dear Sir,

On the 1st instant, I sent, by registered mail, the enclosed letter to Mr. Herbert Morrison, M.P. It reached Jerusalem on the same date, and was returned to me today, for the reason indicated in red ink on the obverse of the envelop.

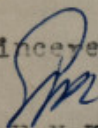

As I am anxious that Mr. Morrison should read the letter therein enclosed, and do not know his home address, I shall be extremely grateful if you will be kind enough to cause the letter to be forwarded to him.

I am taking the liberty of enclosing, for the information of the honourable members of the House of Commons, a copy of the letter addressed to Mr. Morrison as well as a copy of my circular letter entitled "Is this Democracy".

Thanking you in anticipation,

I am, Sir,

Sincerely yours,

E. N. KOUSSA.
