"Ash-Shakaa Challenges the Authority and Calls for Confronting Corruption and Tyranny", a Newspaper Clipping from al-Majd, 6 December 1999

Published on 6 December 1999, this newspaper clipping from al-Majd addresses the "the nation calls for us" statement issued by twenty Palestinian public figures. Many popular and elite sectors have expressed their support of the statement, which criticized corruption, tyranny and surrender within the Palestinian Authority, with the mayor of Nablus Bassam ash-Shakaa, stressing that the statement is a stepping point for a collective militant and rebellious movement which aims to expose the realities of the Oslo Accords and their outcomes.
