Dear Anwar,

this is a tiny note to accompany a book which will I hope reach you by hand of Jim. We spoke of it vaguely at one of our meetings & I got the impression that you had not read it. Certainly Elizabeth Monroe has taken great care over it & done a mountain of research. The new aspect to me was the amount Philby had stuck his fingers in the mess of British, Arabic, French ~~and~~ intrigues over the promises (?) to Arabs & Jews at the end of the 1918 war. As we learn more of these affairs it becomes increasingly easy to see how the M.E. became such a bear-pit!

Bless you for your charming hospitality when I was out your way & do for goodness sake come & visit us at Portland before too long.

Greetings to you all,

Yours sincerely,

Ralph
