A letter from the Honorary Board Secretary to the Head of the Honorary Board Informing him Regarding the Honorary Board's Decision to Conduct a trip to Jerusalem

A hand-written letter from the secretary of the Honorary Board to the head of the scout's board informing him about the board's decision to conduct a visit to Jerusalem in order to visit the museum, as he is asking him to reach out the museum to receive official permission to enter. It is worth mentioning that this letter is written on a paper clipping without any heading by Sareyyet Ramallah, and has the signature of the honorary board secretary.
